

"Is There a Doctor in the House?"

Assignment Guidelines:

Assignment may be typed or handwritten

If typed, use Times New Roman, 12pt font only. All information for each specialist must be arranged horizontally on the same page.

Part I and Part II should be submitted as 2 different assignments on separate paper!

If they are submitted as one assignment a grade will be entered for part I; 0 for part II

Part I

Dissect each one of the 20 terms and define the meaning of each part.

Please number the physicians according to the list below.

Organize information on a 4-column chart. Column 2 may contain more than one definition.

Example:

Column 1	Column 2	Column 3	Column 4
2. Cardiologist	cardio = heart	-(o)logist one who believes in Do not write 20 times!	the study of the heart.

Part II

Identify the body system(s) AND 2 organs and 2 diseases that are treated by each of the 20 specialists listed below.

Organize information on a 3-column chart with name of physician/specialist in the first column, body system(s) in the second, organs in the third and diseases in the fourth. Number the physicians according to the list below.

Example:

Column 1	Column 2	Column 3	Column 4
Physician	Body System(s)	Organs	Diseases (common)
2. Cardiologist	cardiovascular	heart blood vessels	cardiac arrest coronary artery disease

"Is There a Doctor in the House?"

Assignment Guidelines:

Assignment may be typed or handwritten

If typed, use Times New Roman, 12pt font only. All information for each specialist must be arranged horizontally on the same page.

Part I and Part II should be submitted as 2 different assignments on separate paper!

If they are submitted as one assignment a grade will be entered for part I; 0 for part II

Part I

Dissect each one of the 20 terms and define the meaning of each part.

Please number the physicians according to the list below.

Organize information on a 4-column chart. Column 2 may contain more than one definition.

Example:

Column 1	Column 2	Column 3	Column 4
2. Cardiologist	cardio = heart	-(o)logist one who believes in Do not write 20 times!	the study of the heart.

Part II

Identify the body system(s) AND 2 organs and 2 diseases that are treated by each of the 20 specialists listed below.

Organize information on a 3-column chart with name of physician/specialist in the first column, body system(s) in the second, organs in the third and diseases in the fourth. Number the physicians according to the list below.

Example:

Column 1	Column 2	Column 3	Column 4
Physician	Body System(s)	Organs	Diseases (common)
2. Cardiologist	cardiovascular	heart blood vessels	cardiac arrest coronary artery disease